

SELF-DECLARATION FORM FOR APPLICANTS, EMPLOYEES AND VOLUNTEERS IN REGULATED ACTIVITY

INFORMATION:

Newcastle United Football Company Limited (the Club) has identified that the post you are applying for involves or may involve duties with children and/or vulnerable adults and the Club takes their welfare very seriously. The Club views that this post is a position of trust and that it may be seen by the children or vulnerable adults as having power and/or influence. The Club needs to ensure employees and volunteers take their role and duties seriously and have the welfare of the child or vulnerable adult central to practice.

The Club actively promotes safe working practices and professional boundaries including Codes of Conduct to support employees and volunteers to safeguard children and vulnerable adults. Relationships with children and vulnerable adults must be appropriate and language, behaviour and demeanour must not give rise to speculation or comment. The Club will expect employees and volunteers to undertake Safeguarding training to ensure an understanding of best practice in relation to children and/or vulnerable adults. This reflects the Club's attitude to safeguarding and the Club expects all employees and volunteers to share this commitment.

This post is considered exempt from the provisions of the Rehabilitation of Offenders Act 1974. This means the Club is allowed to ask about spent and unspent convictions as well as cautions, conditional cautions, warnings and reprimands. The nature of the post may also subject you to working unsupervised with U8's in schools and other childcare settings and as a result, the Club is also allowed to ask whether you meet the criteria outlined under the 'Disqualification by Association' rules contained in the Childcare (Disqualification) Regulations 2009.

The post will require a basic or enhanced criminal record check (CRC) and this will tell the Club about any criminal record you may have. If it is an Enhanced Disclosure it may also tell the Club about other information held by the Police about you, such as outstanding prosecutions or serious relevant allegations. The Club is entitled to consider any or all of this information in its recruitment process giving due consideration to the significance and relevance of the information received.

In many cases we will disregard certain information. The Club has an Equal Opportunities Policy and a Recruitment of Ex-Offenders Policy which are available to you on the share drive or on request.

The possession of a criminal record or together information disclosed to the Club will not necessarily prevent you from working with us. All information is considered on its merits and you can be assured will be dealt with sensitively and that your information will be handled confidentially and shared only on a need to know basis. The Club has a Secure Record Keeping and Data Storage Policy which is available to you on the central communications platform or on request.

For more information about the CRC process please visit:

This post will also require written references and will include a six month probationary period which allows for monitoring and assessment purposes including ensuring your suitability to work with children and/or vulnerable adults.

Please note in accordance with the requirements of the Safeguarding Vulnerable Groups Act (2006) a barred person may not be employed in certain posts. These are posts described by the Act as 'Regulated Activities'. The Club does consider this to be a Regulated Activity position. The Club would be committing an offence if we knowingly employ a barred person in Regulated Activity.
